First Grandmother Of The Year Named In West Virginia

Mrs. B. O. Blaine of Lookout has been named 1975 Grandmother of the Year in connection with the first annual Grandparents Day proclamation by Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr. and observed this year on the fourth Monday in May.

Mrs. Blaine, 88, is the mother of a son, Larry, and a daughter, Mrs. Lillian D. Weaver. She also raised her daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Marie Crain of Baltimore from the age of four. She is the grandmother of four - the great-grandmother of six, and has helped put several children through school.

The former Lillian D. Weaver, Mrs. Blaine had 13 teachers and dates (in all 1942), and a half-sister and dates (the father, John Weaver, died a total of 27 children). Well-known as a correspondent for the Fayette Tribune, Mrs. Blaine owns and operates Blaine Hillcrest Motel at Lookout, is president of the Lookout Home, Huntington, Ohio, vice president of the United Church of Christ, and active in the church board of the Fayette County Children's Home. She is also a member of the Fayette County Chapter of the American Legion, the Fayette County Chapter of the American Red Cross, and belongs to the Lookout Baptist Church. She recently was chosen as both of Fayette County, an honor that included an all-expense trip to the State Festival at Glenville.

The announcement of Mrs. Blaine's selection as Grandmother of the Year was made by Mrs. Joe McQuade of Gauley Bridge, secretary of Grandparents Day. A joint resolution introduced by Sen. James H. Hamilton and Sen. C. Lynn would make Grandparents Day a nationally observed holiday the Mother's Day and Father's Day.

A Proclamation

As we seek to strengthen the enduring values of the family, it is appropriate that we honor our grandparents.

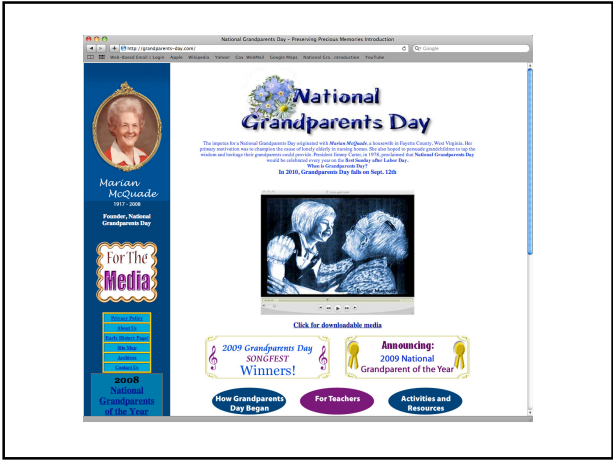

Grandparents are our continuing tie to the near-past, to the events and beliefs and experiences that so strongly affect our lives and the world around us. Whether they are our own or surrogate grandparents who fill some of the gaps in our mobile society, our senior generation also provides our society a link to our national heritage and traditions.

We all know grandparents whose values transcend passing fads and pressures, and who possess the wisdom of distilled pain and joy. Because they are usually free to love and guide and befriend the young without having to take daily responsibility for them, they can often reach out past pride and fear of
